FABLE NO 416

RELEASED May 26, 1929.

FISH DAY

By Paul Terry.

Up north where trained seals, dancing penguins and boxing bears amuse their playmates, old Al and Waffles go afishing. A Polar patrolman comes along and quizes the old man about the fish he has caught.

Al and Waffles dive through the ice and after swimming along a ways, crash into the snow show. The bear ringleader makes the farmer jig a bit until Waffles grabs the whip and chases the bear over the ice.

AESOP SAYS:- "PEOPLE WHO CARRY IT IN GLASS BOTTLES SHOULD NOT SIT ON STONES".
